NORTH WALES BEER FESTIVAL

Chester & South Clwyd CAMRA is delighted to confirm that this event will be held on 10 & 11 May at the Centenary Club, Glyndwr University Racecourse Stadium [Wrexham Football Club] on Mold Road, Wrexham. There have been previous, very successful events at the Gresford Colliery Club, under the banner of Wrexham Beer Festival, but it was felt that a more central location would be more of an attraction to visitors.

We are pleased to have reached agreement with Glyndwr University to hold a festival in the newly-refurbished centenary lounge under the Yale stand at the stadium. The larger venue gives the opportunity to increase the size of the festival, and to appeal to visitors from further afield; hence the renaming as North Wales Festival.

We hope to have most, possibly all North Wales breweries represented, and a competition for Champion Beer of North Wales will be held during the event. There will be upwards of 50 beers to try (including the competition beers), and a range of real ciders and perries.

Since acquiring the football ground, the University have greatly improved facilities at the club, particularly the centenary suite, which functions as the students' union bar during term time, and we are sure that all visitors will be impressed by the venue. It has lots of comfortable seating, a stage with built-in sound system, and a fully fitted kitchen which will provide hot and cold food throughout the festival.

The festival will run over three sessions: Friday 7–11 pm, & Saturday 11 May 12–4 & 7–11.

Ticket prices will cost £3 for each session. A festival programme is included in the price, but as an experiment, glasses will cost an extra £2; refundable at the end of the session if you do not wish to keep it.

Live music will be provided, with Saturday afternoon designated as a (fairly) quiet session.

We would be delighted if every Wales member could attend at least one session, and show support for the event. Tickets can be bought online at www.northwalesbeerfest.org.uk More detailed ticket information will be circulated in due course, but do please mark the dates in your diaries. Bring a friend along, and enjoy what promises to be a superb event.

Early December at the Pied Bull in Chester and it could have been renamed the “Happy Brewers”. The reason was the presentation of the awards for the Champion Beer of Cheshire for 2012.

Mass Lobby of Parliament – 12-12-12

A small group of members from Chester & S. Clwyd CAMRA travelled to London by train to attend the CAMRA Mass Lobby of Parliament on 12 December 2012. We had alerted our local MP to meet with us at 1 pm in the Central Lobby of Westminster and arrived at the Emmanuel Centre to register our arrival and collect crib cards with loaded questions for our MP before joining the queue for entry into Parliament. Most of the other visitors were fellow CAMRA members, some having travelled from Scotland. After about 40 minutes we entered the security area which had airport style checks; X-ray machines for hand baggage or contents of pockets and walk through metal detector screens. Thankfully no shoe removal, but if you looked a bit dodgy they gave you a quick body pat down. Finally we walked through into the Palace of Westminster and headed to the Central Lobby.

We found our MP and questioned him about the Beer Tax Escalator, the negative effect it has on pub business and inquired if he was aware that the effect of increasing duty produced less revenue to the exchequer due to falling sales instead of an increase. He appeared sympathetic to the cause and would provide some support to debates about bringing PubCos into line about beer pricing to landlords and more options for guest beers.

However he kept to the party line by stating the escalator tax was introduced by the previous Labour government and was not due for review until 2015; very disappointing!

After the formalities we were shown around the Lords debating chamber and surrounding rooms, all very plush and ornate. Having spent nearly an hour with us we thanked our MP for his time and returned to the Emmanuel Centre to collect a free pint of beer in exchange for our feedback cards.

The next event for the day was to be a series of speeches from the great and the good of CAMRA and some MPs but we decided to pursue the real cause of the campaign and try some more beer! >>>

>>> So off we went to the Speaker, a smallish pub just off Parliament Square and we had time to enjoy a pint before a big rush completely filled the place. Seeking somewhere less crowded we found the Cask Pub & Kitchen in Pimlico. Up to 10 cask beers are available but we only tried a few in the time allowed but a good selection, however mostly hoppy!

Overall, about 1,000 members lobbied 350 MPs so an effective day of action but its true success has yet to be seen from the actions of our MPs. Top marks to CAMRA HQ who organised the Mass Lobby event; everything went smoothly and generally to time. J B

Helsby Beer Festival

.... now in its 4th Year takes place on 8 & 9 March at Helsby Community Sports Club Chester Road, Helsby

To appeal to Real Ale lovers at other times they now have a hand pump selling cask beers at all times. Brimstige Breweries beers have sold really well. The quality and taste have been excellent and consistent and they intend to keep stocking them in the future. The regular beers include Sand Piper, Scarecrow, Trappers Hat and Rhode Island Red.

The small friendly Team of employees and Committee members put in lots of time and effort to keep the place running and would like to tell everyone that the doors are open to all, whether they be sporting or not, to pop in and try a beer or two.

As a very active sports club it is run as a not for profit organization and for the benefit of the sporting members and locals alike.

GOOD BEER GUIDE

Architectural Delight

After much talk and expectation, the Saughton based Brunning & Price group have unveiled the latest addition to their estimable pub estate.

The Architect, which opened just before Christmas, lies in landscaped grounds between Nicholas Street and Nuns Road in Chester close by the city walls and Roodee racecourse. It is a conversion of St Martin's Lodge which had originally been the two storey regency home of famous architect and bridge designer Thomas Harrison, but had been boarded up ever since the police vacated their headquarters next door to make way for the new HQ building.

As we've come to expect from Brunning & Price, they've made an exemplary job of the restoration with the pub basically comprising of two halves. Making full use of the rambling original interior of the listed Georgian building, to the right you'll find several rooms of varying size and intimacy given over to dining with table service.

For something less formal and more pubby head into a sympathetic brick extension where the bar looks down on an impressive spacious lower level seating area. If you're a devotee of B&P pubs you'll be familiar with the decor, fixtures and furnishings. There's the usual frame-to-frame prints (of varying topicality), the tall bookshelves, wood floors, carpets and rugs, fresh flowers, blackboards, chunky furniture and lots of glass and window. Outside there's a patio with sloping lawns which we can expect to be mobbed particularly when the horse racing season resumes in May.

Regarding CAMRA's raison d'être, the real ale, expect Phoenix B&P Bitter and Weetwood Cheshire Cat as standard backed up by guest beers, which included those from Beartown, Tatton and Titanic during the first week of opening.

Prices range from £3.30 to £3.70 reflecting the upmarket nature of the establishment.

The Architect will no doubt have its critics (we might expect remarks about affordability and clientele) but it should be viewed as a marvellous new edition to the already diverse Chester pub scene.

Cestrians can also be grateful for the vibrant restoration of a historic understated building that had become little more than an overgrown eyesore.

Behind the Pumps

Andy Smythe, landlord of the Red Lion in the Chester suburb of Handbridge, answers a few of our questions ...

How long have you been in the pub trade?

I started out with the Little Oak back in 1994. In 2003 I left to run Locus [former Engine House pub now the Shillong curry house] as well as working in my original trade as a sparky. I missed running a pub though and took on the Red Lion in October 2009.

How did you get into the pub trade to begin with?

I've always enjoyed talking crap - some would say I'm fluent at it - as well as socialising and enjoying a beer so I just fancied giving it a go!

What have been the biggest changes you've seen in the last twenty years?

Lots. When I started out all the regional breweries (except the commendably resistant Shepherd Neame) were being taken over and real ale was going nowhere. It was Greenall's Bitter and Original and little else so it's good to see it taking off and all the micro-breweries springing up. What else? The crazy price of a pint. Unfair rents. The PubCo would sometimes double your rent if your business was good. They were in a win-win situation because if the landlord walked out they could then show good trade figures to some newly retired policeman or whoever who fancied a go running his own boozier. Today there are fewer and fewer mugs succumbing to temptation, so now you can haggle with your area manager.

What are your favourite and worst aspects of the job?

Without doubt meeting so many good people and the craic. Worst is dealing with the occasional awkward drunk and the long hours leading to less and less reward.

What in your opinion makes a good pub?

A good landlord! I would say this but it's true! Obviously you're also looking at the place being warm, welcoming and with friendly banter. The ale's got to be good and you've got to offer some decent grub these days. Not many places can survive on wet sales alone.

How's trade at the moment?

Right now [January] - extremely average i.e. not brilliant.

What do you see as the future for the pub and how will you adapt?

I know the PubCos are in a bit of a mess at the moment but they'll find their way around things. A free-house is the way to go.

What are your favourite five pubs (in any order)?

The Fat Cat (Norwich). Crown Liquor Saloon (Belfast), McDaid's (Dublin), Bull (Beaumaris) and the Drovers Inn (Loch Lomond).

Most amusing pub story?

The Little Oak has two doors in off Broughton. One day a little harmless drunk came reeling up to the bar asking for a drink. I told him he'd had a little too much and we couldn't serve him. He graciously acknowledged this and walked out. Seconds later he appeared through the other door at the opposite end of the bar. I asked him if he was the same fella who'd just been in and got knocked back. He didn't recognise me or the pub at all
.....and he was still drunk.

Good Beer Guide 2013 - 40th Edition

The 2013 Good Beer Guide is fully revised and updated, with details of more than 4,500 pubs across the UK serving the best real ale.

From country inns to urban style bars and back street boozers, all selected and reviewed by CAMRA's 147,000 members, this is your definitive guide to finding the perfect pint. It is available now.

- ❖ Over 4,500 urban and rural pubs, giving details of food, opening hours, beer gardens, accommodation, transport links, pub history, disabled access and facilities for families.
- ❖ Informative features section, with articles on pubs, beer and brewing, as well as beer festival listings from around the country.
- ❖ Fully revised and updated every year by committed CAMRA members .
- ❖ Unique brewery section listing all the 900 breweries in the UK - micro, regional and national - that brew real ale, with tasting notes for hundreds of their beers written by a trained CAMRA tasting panel.
- ❖ £15.99 (£10 for members)
Order on-line from www.camra.org.uk or from good book shops.

YOUR RIGHTS

You should receive a full pint, not 90%. The licensee expects to be paid in full! We always ask them politely to “squeeze a drop more in”, or top it up, please”.

If you have a chipped glass, dirty cutlery, bad food or sour beer, don't hesitate; let the staff know, politely. It is easy for things to be missed in a busy session: a little courtesy and understanding on both sides should resolve matters.

If the licensee won't put things right, then call Trading Standards or Environmental Health.
